Russ Desperado Held By Police In Frenchtown

Mikail Serousov, 46, Russian emigre desperado with a criminal record dating back to his teens, is again in the hands of the police. He was arrested Saturday night by Detective-Sergeant K. A. Slotodchikoff of the French Police for being in possession of firearms.

Serousov is perhaps best known to old residents of Shanghai as one of a gang of six emigre bandits who attempted to kidnap Messrs. Arthur and Theodore Sopher here approximately nine years ago. At that time the attempted kidnaping was frustrated, and all six were convicted. Serousov drew three years in jail for his share in the conspiracy.

Since his release, he has been convicted again on a charge of burglary and housebreaking.

At the time of his arrest, last Saturday, a .38 caliber Mauser and several rounds of ammunition were found in his possession.
